

CENTRAL-Workshop Vienna, December 9th-10th, 2016Institutionalization of Memory and Knowledge in Post-Conflict Societies

Venue: Seminarraum im Institut für Osteuropäische Geschichte auf dem Campus
(Spitalgasse 2, Hof 3)

Accommodation for guests from Prague and Berlin: Pension Excellence (Alser Str. 21)

Friday, December 9th, 2016

9.30–11.00

Project Presentations by Kateřina Králová, Maria Alina Asavei, Jiří Kocian, Karin Hofmeisterová, Nikola Karasova, Tereza Azuká (Prague): Beyond Hegemonic Narratives and Myths. Troubled Pasts in the History and Memory of East-Central and South-East Europe

11.00–11.30

Coffee break

11.30–12.30

Beyond Hegemonic Narratives and Myths (continuation)

12.30–14.00

Lunch break

14.00–15.30

Beyond Hegemonic Narratives and Myths (discussion)

Ljiljana Radonić (Vienna): Post-Communist Invocation of Europe: Memorial Museums' Narratives and the Europeanization of Memory

15.30–16.00 Coffee break

16.00–18.00

Presentations by grant holders of the CENTRAL-KOLLEG „Spaces as Artefacts“

Ferdinand Kühnel (Vienna) and Snežana Stanković (Berlin): Project Presentation

Lukas Tröger (Vienna): The Impact of Ethnic Homogenization on the Language Use of Germans and Slovenes

Martina Mirković (Vienna): Negotiating Memory in the Case of the „Bleiburška tragedija“

Julian Nitzsche (Berlin): Memorial Culture of World War I in Sorbian Lusatia

CENTRAL

Central European Network
for Teaching and Research in Academic Liaison

Saturday, December 10th, 2016

10.00–12.00

Christian Voss (Berlin): Remembering Greek-Macedonian Symbiosis in the Civil War: Local, National and Global Perspectives

Roswitha Kersten-Pejanić (Berlin): Post-Conflict Graffiti in Croatia as Linguistic Landscape

Andreea Petruescu (Vienna): Peasant Rebellion Against the Modern State: Old Calendarists in Interwar Romania

12.00–13.30

Lunch break

13.30–16.00

Agenda setting: CENTRAL 2017–2018